STATEMENT OF FACT - NEW BUSINESS

The information contained in this Statement of Fact shall be incorporated in the contract between you and Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc. The insurance policy will be issued in the company's usual form for this class of insurance. These facts will be taken into account when calculating the premium and applying terms and conditions to your Insurance Policy.

Please note that failure to disclose all material facts could invalidate your Insurance and/or result in a claim being repudiated. Following cancellation you may encounter difficulties trying to purchase insurance elsewhere and, if the policy concerned covered property, its cancellation could lead to a breach of the terms and conditions of any loan secured on such property. Material Facts are those facts an Insurer would regard as likely to influence the acceptance and assessment of your risk. If you are in any doubt whether a fact is material you should disclose it.

Data Privacy Notice

Your privacy is important to us. We will process your personal data in accordance with data protection laws.

Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc ("we", "us", "our") is the data controller in respect of any personal data which you provide to us or which we hold about you and any personal data which is processed in connection with the services we provide to you.

Where you provide us with personal data about a person other than yourself (such as a dependant or named person under a policy), you must inform them that you are providing their personal data to us and refer them to this notice.

To provide our insurance related services, we will collect and process your personal data such as your name, contact details, financial information and any information which is relevant to the insurance policy we are providing. In order to provide your insurance policy or when making a claim, we may also need to collect or process 'special categories of personal data' such as information relating to your health. We may also collect and process information which is likely to reveal your religious beliefs where you have manifestly made that information public or by communicating with us using a title or honorific which indicates a religious belief. We may also collect data relating to any previous unspent criminal convictions that you may have where that data is necessary to facilitate the provision of insurance services in connection with you, or related activities.

We process your personal data and your special category personal data relating to health and religious affiliation for the purposes of offering and carrying out insurance related services to you or to an organisation or other persons which you represent. Your personal data is also used for business purposes such as fraud prevention, business management, systems development and carrying out statistical and strategic analysis.

Providing our services will involve sharing your personal data with, and obtaining information about you from, our group companies and third parties such as brokers, loss adjusters, credit reference agencies, fraud prevention agencies, our service providers and professional advisors or business partners and our regulators.

In some circumstances we may transfer your personal data to countries outside of the European Economic Area. We will put appropriate safeguards in place to ensure that your personal data is protected.

Where we have your consent, we may market our services to you or provide your personal data to our related companies or business partners for marketing purposes. You can opt out of marketing communications at any time by contacting us.

Fraud Prevention

We need to carry out fraud and anti-money laundering checks, and this will involve sharing your personal data (such as your name, contact details and financial information) with credit reference and fraud prevention organisations. If you make a claim, we will share your information (where necessary) with other companies to prevent fraud. For the purposes of deciding whether to accept and pay a claim or any part of it, we may appoint loss adjusters or external investigation services to act on our behalf.

We may also use information from other sources such as the Companies Registration Office, Financial Credit Agencies and Insurance Link (a central claims database for the insurance industry) to obtain additional details and to independently verify information you have provided to us. You can find more information about Insurance Link at www.inslink.ie.

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information.

Please note that when carrying out any fraud prevention activities, we may need to process your special categories of data such as criminal offence information and share it with fraud prevention agencies.

Further Information

For further information on how your personal data is used and your rights in relation to your personal data please refer to our Privacy Policy at www.ecclesiastical.ie/privacy-policy or contact our Compliance Associate, by post at Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc, 2nd Floor, Block F2, EastPoint, Dublin 3, D03 T6P8, or by telephone on (01) 619 0300 or by email at compliance@ecclesiastical.com.
